

MOCI - Gravotech receives the award for innovation export

7th MOCI* Prize list, a famous French ranking of the 1000 first international SME: Gravotech receives the award for innovation export

MOCI is the leading French publication for trade & investment professionals*

On Friday, November 27th, 2015, during the 7th ceremony of the MOCI Prize list which rewards the most successful companies in the international field, Gérard Guyard received the prize Innovation export.

This award distinguishes the independent and innovative French companies showing a growth of their international activity thanks to their strategy of innovation.

" At Gravotech, innovation and performance are in the DNA of the company ", explains Gérard Guyard. " This prize is for us the sign of the real recognition of our contribution to the brilliance of the French expertise in the world. We are going to implement everything to stay as high as this distinction! "

